Appl. No. 10/808,371

The reasons for this request are: (1) failure of the client to pay bills for services for an unreasonable period of time, despite our repeated letter demands, including 11 unpaid invoices dating from November 2005 to November 2006; (2) failure of the client to provide requested advance payment for recent services (e.g., November 9 RCE and Amendment filed in Appl. No. 10/812,018) in view of the unpaid bills for past services; and (3) the unavailability of the client for extended periods of time, several months, without alternative contact information being provided, as requested, making it unreasonably difficult to carry out employment.
